

Fees, costs and scholarships

Fees

The master's programmes are currently free of charge (please note that special conditions apply for the Erasmus Mundus master's programmes).

However, tuition fees will be introduced for non-EU/EEA students starting autumn 2011. The level and conditions of the fees are not yet set. Any news on this will be published here.

Scholarships

A limited number of scholarships are available each year from the following organisations/programmes:

SI - the Swedish Institute

For students from a large number of countries (including the Guest Scholarship Programme, the Visby Programme and the Master in Sweden for Eastern Europe). Application to the SI scholarships is done shortly after the admissions process has been completed, directly to the Swedish Institute. Only admitted students can apply for an SI scholarship. The number of scholarships is limited and competition is fierce.
